MARKET MAKES GOOD START AND
THEN RECEDES

Early Hours of Day on Stock
Exchange Give Promise of Substantial Recoveries, but Disappointment Follows.

NEW YORK, Feb. 29.—For a brief period of today's trading, notably in the active first hour, the market bade fair to make further substantial recoveries from its pronounced depression of recent sessions. The gains in that time ranged from 1 to more than 3 points in standard shares, with far greater advances in speculative issues.

The buying power seemed to run its course before midday, however, after which prices evinced a marked tendency to recede. This was especially true of the munitions group and allied shares. The recessions were accompanied by news of the sinking of a French transport together with semi-official intimations that too much had been taken for granted in overnight advances regarding returns between Washington and Berlin.

In any event the dragging final hour witnessed a moderate but general revival of the downward trend in which liquidation proved less potent than short selling. Representative stocks, including rails and United States Steel, shaded materially from early maximums retaining little or none of their advantage at the heavy close.

Reading issues were again the outstanding feature, the common stocks being not only the most active issue of the day, but adding 2 points to yesterday's advance, while the first and second preferred shares, ordinarily very active, also made smart gains, though falling away at the end.

Dealings were far below yesterday's large volume, but embraced an unusually large number of stocks. It was regarded as significant, however, that dormant issues were most prominent on the decline.

Total sales amounted to 520,000 shares.

Some encouragement was derived from the morning from the firmer tendency of Anglo-French war bonds, which retrieved much of yesterday's reversal only to relinquish virtually all their gain at the end. Offerings of this important issues were in smaller volume.

Exchange markets were very dull, with no material change from prevailing quotations. Rules were firm in connection with the approaching completion of the Russian loan, the amount of which is yet to be determined.

The Lackawanna system reported an increase of $8,000 in operating income for January and Chesapeake & Ohio increased its net by $358,000.

Bonds were irregular on light trading. Total sales, par value, $2,825,000.

United States coupon 3's advanced 1/4 per cent on call.

Chicago, Feb. 29.—Wheat prices took an upward swing today, influenced by the outlook that the chance of a break in diplomatic relations between Germany and the United States was much more remote than a majority of traders had believed.
On the contrary, the market finished strong, 3/4 to 3/8 net higher, with May at $1.12 1/4, and July at $1.09 1/4. Other leading staples, too, all scored gains—corn 1/4 to 1/8, oats 1/4 to 1/8, and provisions 1/4 to 3/8. Highest prices of the day for wheat were posted just before the close. The lowest came right at the start, but at no time afterward did the market suffer any reaction to over-near yesterday's late figures.
Over the contrary, the market, although nervous and subject to wide fluctuations was during most of the session tending firmly upward. The quiet exception followed the receipt of news that a big French ship had been torpedoed. When the fact developed, however, that the vessel was an auxiliary cruiser, the bearish influence on the market very quickly disappeared.
Gossip which had been current early in the morning operations beginning tonight would be likely to cause a serious decrease in the number of ships available for the trade was offset to a considerable degree by word that Italy had seized outright thirty German steamers which heretofore had been merely interned. In this connection a good deal of significance was given to reports of foreign buying of future deliveries here, and to Italian inquiries for wheat at the seaboard. Besides domestic crop advices were generally bullish, and there were announcements that Minneapolis had made large sales of flour.
Corn responded to the advance in wheat. Moreover, receipts here were small and estimates of the Argentine exportable surplus were cut down. Upturns in the oats market seemed to be chiefly to parallel the action of other grain. Houses with seaboard connections were liberal buyers of the May option.
Higher prices on hogs and cereals raised provisions higher. It was said New York interests displayed unusual activity in the purchase of hogs.

LONDON WOOL AUCTION.

London, Feb. 29.—The second series of the wool auction sales opened today with offerings of 7,200 bales. The attendance was large. The moderate selection was in fair demand, but both Merinos and crossbreds declined from 5 to 7 1/2 per cent. Labor difficulty and the question of financing were largely responsible for the lower prices. Russia took a few lots of scored Merinos and the home trade the rest. No sales were made in America.
